OREGON'S POPULAR
SEASIDE RESORT

CROWDS ARE BEGINNING TO GATHER THERE AND SUBSTANTIAL IMPROVEMENTS ARE BEING MADE ON EVERY HAND.

At Seaside ample preparations have been made to take care of the visitors and that city looks very prosperous. Despite the high prices for material a great deal of building is going on and streets are being improved and cemented sidewalks are being put down. A new pavilion is being erected just west of the Necanicum, octagonal in shape, and will be an attractive place of amusement. The bridge across the Necanicum at Holladay is almost completed and as soon as the trains run down there, which will be next Saturday, the old Seaside House which has been thoroughly overhauled and is now resplendent in a new coat of paint, will entertain its share of the crowd as in days of yore. At Gearhart a large amount of building is going on and improvements are being made to the place in the way of new streets and roadways which are bound to keep this place in the rank it has always as one of Oregon's most popular resorts.

PERSONAL MENTION.

R. L. Jefferies of Seaside returned home on last night's train. Mr. Page, the well known timber man, was in the city yesterday. The Rev. W. S. Gilbert and family returned from Seaside last night. Four of the Schmidt brothers of the firm of Schmidt Bros. Cold Storage plant, are at present in Astoria. F. and J. Schmidt have returned here from from Southern California where they left their families.

C. M. Fowler, commercial agent of the A. & C. R. R., was in town yesterday.

B. A. Seeborg, of Brookfield, was in town yesterday looking after his case in the circuit court.

H. W. Scott, editor of the Oregonian, and his son Lester, went through on their way to Seaside yesterday.

Judge Thomas H. McBride came in on the morning train from Portland Monday to convene the circuit court.

G. L. Hedges, the district attorney, came down from Portland yesterday to attend the session of the circuit court.

Mr. Prael of the Astoria Box Company has been away in Portland for a few days but was expected back last night.

George S. Taylor of Portland, traveling agent for the Wisconsin Central R. R., was a visitor in Astoria on Monday.

E. R. Blair, the well known bookkeeper of the Tongue Point mill, and his family were on the late train from Portland yesterday.

In the recent coroner's inquest in the Jennings' murder case, Miss L. E. Benoit was the official stenographer and proved herself most capable.

Dr. Logan has gone as far as Portland with his family to see them safely off for a month's vacation in San Francisco. They will stay with Mrs. Logan's parents.

James Finlayson, the local agent of the C. P. R. and E. L. Ward, the well known real estate man, went to Portland on Sunday and were expected back last evening.

Leonora and Bernice McGregor, daughters of W. F. McGregor of the Alaska Packers' Association have decided to spend their summer vacation back east in Minnesota with their relatives. Mrs. Chris Schmidt will accompany them.

P. L. Cherry, British vice-consul and agent for Lloyds in Astoria will leave this morning on a trip to Banff in the Canadian Rockies. Mr. Cherry has been suffering considerably from rheumatism and hopes to get rid of this complaint by the help of the invigorating climate of the mountains. Whilst he is away his son Edward L. Cherry will act as vice-consul. He has filled the position already at Tacoma and elsewhere.

If you will make inquiry it will be a revelation to you how many succumb to kidney or bladder troubles in one form or another. If the patient is not beyond medical aid, Foley's Kidney Cure will cure. It never disappoints. T. F. Laurin, Owl Drug Store.

CAMPS MAY POSSIBLY CLOSE DOWN

BIG MEETING IN PORTLAND
DAY TO CONSIDER THE ADVISABILITY OF A GENERAL
SHUT-DOWN.

There are many signs pointing to a general shut down of the logging camps in the Columbia River Valley. Many have already decided to close on the first of the month for an indefinite period and today a general meeting will be held of all the big timber-cutters to decide whether this movement shall become general. It is generally believed that most of the large owners will be in sympathy with a universal stoppage. The present prevailing prices for timber and lumber are, they say, ruinous. A shut down would give the loggers an opportunity to get rid of what is at present cut, and would also give a chance to prices to recover themselves. W. F. McGregor of Astoria, although unable to attend personally, will be represented at the meeting.

A. A. Herren, Finch, Ark., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar is the best preparation for coughs, cold and lung trouble. I know that it has cured consumption in the first stages." You never heard of any one using Foley's Honey and Tar and not being satisfied." T. F. Laurin, Owl Drug Store.
